County Roads To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

It is surprising to a stranger coming from a country where there are no toad making materials, and having been long used to driving over what are called "wretched whose reads lead to the capital of the nation and afford advantages for supurb drive ways, with materials for constructing fine roads, lying close to the roadside, to find them worse, decidedly so, then they are away down in southern Maryland, where there is nothing but sand and clay out of which to make good roads, Landowners, taxpayers of Alexandria county, are you asleep that you allow such a condition of affairs to exis? If it is so, as has been told me, that you are asleep, then, "awake," shake yourselves, look around, see what is going on in the world and get your eyes wide open to the fact that you are away behind the times and that your roads would be a disgrace to a section of country twenty miles from a rai road. What is it, then, when your land and your homes are almost under the shadow of the dome of the What is it, then, when from every hill op you have panoramic views of wooded hill sides, sleeping vales, a great city and a historic river? What is it, then, when those interested and desiring to sell properly in your midet, to bring new people and an abundance of capital, are balked in their attempts, on account of bad roads? To call it a disgrace would be a very pleas ant way of describing so shameful a disregard of your plain duty to your wives, children and your country. Somnambulistic taxpayers, awakel SOJOURNER.
